In 2004, Tim earned his Bachelor of Science from Freed-Hardeman, with a double major in Philosophy as well as Arts and Humanity with a minor in Bible. In 2006, Tim earned a Master of Education from Freed-Hardeman University with an emphasis in Curriculum and Instruction, Classroom Management, and Lesson Preparation. Tim is currently working on a Master of Arts New Testament, also from Freed-Hardeman, with an emphasis in original New Testament language.

Tim was the Associate Minister and Youth Director for the Juno Church of Christ in Lexington, TN. from 2006-2009. He was the Youth Minister at the Batesville Church of Christ in Batesville, MS. from 2009-2010.

The Minister search committee received Tim's extensive resume and was impressed with not only his educational accomplishments and his vast ministry experiences, but also his personal Philosophy of Ministry and his passion for the Word of God. We are eager to hear the sermon that Tim will be sharing with us today, as well as the Bible study he has prepared for us this evening.
