

THE FAMILY CONNECTION

Romans 15:7

welcome!

The Little Things

In our service to God, we tend to discount little things, but the little things are important as seen through the eyes of our Master. When we read Matthew 25:31-46 we realize that whatever we do in service to others is not overlooked by our Father.

It is important in the eyes of God when we:

- ◆ Encourage someone who is discouraged.
- ◆ Take time to visit someone in the hospital.
- ◆ Pray for someone.
- ◆ Speak to a visitor at our worship time.
- ◆ Hug someone who is your brother or sister.
- ◆ Take time to talk to one of our precious little children.
- ◆ Encourage our teachers.
- ◆ Thank those who spend time studying so our little ones can be fed.
- ◆ Give special attention and consideration to our teenagers.
- ◆ Visit one of our precious 'shut ins'.
- ◆ Talk to someone about their soul.
- ◆ Listen to someone who is burdened with an overload of problems.
- ◆ Speak a kind word when someone is being unkind.
- ◆ Turn the conversation from negative to positive.
- ◆ Search for the best in everyone.
- ◆ Excuse those things that can be overlooked.
- ◆ Remain trustworthy when a soul is poured out to you.

“Little things” are actually big things in the eyes of God and to those in need. This week, look for opportunities to be used as an instrument of God.
